

Faculty-led Study Abroad Shadow Program Application

The purpose of the shadowing program is to provide a development opportunity for faculty who intend to lead a short-term study abroad program in the near future (1-2 years). Shadows will be paired with experienced faculty leaders on existing programs and are expected to travel with the group and participate in all group activities.

Applicant Information

Name:

Department:

Email:

Preferred program to shadow (rank 1-4, 1 being your highest preference)

____ January in Paris (J-term, France)

____ UK Cities as Text (J-term, United Kingdom)

____ Teaching English Learners in Argentina (Spring Break, Argentina)

____ Walking the Camino de Santiago (Summer, Spain)

Note: This program requires long distance walking/hiking (12-15miles average) throughout 12 consecutive days. Do not include a ranking for this program unless you are comfortable with the physical demands.

Future Program Summary

The below sections are to summarize the future program you intend to lead. The planning and proposal process will be ongoing and Global Engagement does not expect a finalized proposal at this time.

Program title:

Academic term: J-term Spring Summer

Year: 2025 2026 or later

Please provide 1-2 pages describing your program idea, including learning objectives, locations, sites to be visited, the target population of students that would be interested in the program and any other information you feel is pertinent to the application.

Faculty Expertise

Include a recent CV (abbreviated form preferred).

In 1-2 paragraphs, please describe:

- Your experience traveling or living in another country
- Your language skills relevant to the chosen site (as applicable)
- Your experience teaching undergraduate/graduate students and leading groups